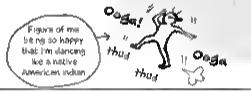
Nice to Meet You...!!

My name is Yuki Isoya.
Thank you so, so very much for picking up my first comic!! I'm so happy—I'm so grateful—I'm glad I'm alive.



About Honya no Mori no Akari

This story is my first serialization to be published. It started out as a short, non-serialization, because I was thinking of drawing and releasing a compilation (that's what I had in mind) about silly megane guys~ The stage I decided on is a place I go to almost daily - a bookstore. Saying that, even though I continue to admire my bookstore, I've never actually worked there. All the material I've used here consists of what I've received, thanks to the booksellers' kindness.

About the Characters

Akari Kouno

26-years-old, Blood type O

I wanted to draw a girl in her mid-twenties who's still a maiden. Maiden = her daydreams. I'm the happiest when drawing her face. I'm trying every day to make sure I make her cute.

Morizou Terayama

35-years-old, Blood type B

I made up this person's name by combining the name of an author I like who's born in Aoyama (it's dashed but ;) and the name of a character of Expo 2005 (I love suspicious eyes). A glasses wearing craftsmanship spirit led to this strange character.

Kanou Midori

26-years-old. Blood type A

I borrowed his name from a classmate in middle school. (I'm glad she happily consented now.) It's the first time I'm drawing this type of person but I'm enjoying it. He's very childish though.
